

Miami Paints ...

Saturday, November 4, 2006

Co-Sponsors: Florida Coalition for Peace & Justice (FCPJ)
Miami Art Palace
*Art, War and Peace Museum

About this Extraordinary Event: Miamians are invited to participate in an interactive Art Exhibition and Reflection Forum on the challenge of peacemaking in our local, national and international community. This very special event will showcase a 300-foot length *Peace Mural created by Artist Huong. A Vietnamese-born war refugee, peace activist, and internationally renowned artist, Huong will display her Peace Mural outdoors on the beautiful grounds of the Miami Art Palace, woven among tropical flowers, Bonsai, a water lily pond, and garden sculptures. This dramatic and highly acclaimed artwork will be open for viewing free of charge, from 10am through 4pm. Visitors may participate at anytime during the day. The exhibition includes a hands-on interactive project where participants can work directly with Huong. Concurrent dialogue forums will run throughout the day. Complimentary food and refreshments will be available through much of the day. The event concludes with a public action, Vote for Peace, from 4-5pm. Artist Huong's extraordinary talent can be viewed on the website of the Art, War and Peace Museum located in Jensen Beach, Florida.

Location: Miami Art Palace is a landmark building located along the southside of Palmetto Expressway (Route 826), between Sunset and Kendall; Address: 7900 S.W. 77 Ave., Miami, FL 33143.

ERROR: ioerror
OFFENDING COMMAND: image

STACK: